

Celebrate Valentines Weekend at Coolanowle Country House

Coolanowle Country House is a haven of peace and tranquility. Set on 3 acres of mature beech wood gardens the romance of the setting is hard to resist. Just one hour from Dublin and centrally located on the Laois/ Carlow border it is the ideal destination for a quiet romantic break away with your loved one. Coolanowles reputation for serving local and organically produced food from their farm and their attention to detail adds that extra "special" touch. Some of their many awards include Best Laois Business for Tourism and Hospitality at the Laois Business Awards 2017 as well as the coveted Georgina Campbell Farmhouse of the Year Award 2012. Enjoy complimentary home baking on arrival, take time together to ramble the grounds, chat at the fireside and connect over a delicious candlelit organic Valentines dinner with a bottle of wine. A warm welcome awaits you.....To book please phone us at: 00353598625176.

The Three Ponds in Coolanowle

Down through the sun warmed, leaf laden trees we go.
Down through the glen of tall trees with the thrush- filled branches, the whistling brilliance of blackbirds and the wild wide caw cawing of croak throated crows.
Down through the glen to the three ponds in Coolanowle.
